E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis will preach at the Pen Ridge School House, two miles from this city, to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Sister Vincentia, Superior of St. Joseph's Academy in this city, died Friday night of last week. The remains were taken to Nazareth for interment.

Mr. L. B. Oliver, green grocer and fruit dealer on Ann street, made an assignment Wednesday to Dr. E. E. Hume, for the benefit of his creditors.

Messrs. Crutcher & Stark's have employed musicians and vocalists to give open air concerts in front of White Hall every Wednesday and Saturday evening.

The game of base ball at Versailles Tuesday afternoon, between the Capital City Club, of this place, and the Versailles Club, resulted in a score of 16 to 11 in favor of the former.

During the storm Tuesday morning a large elm tree near the saw-mill of Messrs. Hughes & Dunigan was struck by lightning. Aside from tearing off the bark of the tree no damage was done.

The blackberry patches are furnishing employment for a great many persons just at the present time—picking the berries and scratching where the chiggers have gone under the skin.

Col. Thos. Z. Morrow, Republican candidate for Governor, will probably address the people of Franklin county at the Court House one night next week. Due notice of the time will be given.

The Police Commissioners of Louisville on Tuesday appointed 64 special policemen for duty at the Southern Exposition, of which Capt. E. H. Taylor, formerly of this city, is chief and Geo. T. Patton, Keen O. Tremere, and Jas. M. Crockett, also former citizens of this place, are the number.

In consequence of the dam at Lock No. 5 being repaired, the water in this pool is being drawn off, and a report is being circulated that the boats would soon stop running on account of it. We are authorized to say that the City of Frankfort will continue their regular trips and are certain the Fannie Freese will also.

Frankfort is again without a daily paper. The Daily Inquirer turned its little toes up to the daisies on Wednesday and climbed the golden stair. The young men who had undertaken its publication made a gallant effort to keep it afloat but failing to receive that support from our citizens which they had hoped for, came to the wise conclusion that it would be better to let the paper die than run in debt, and closed out.

The Fannie Freese came up Thursday afternoon with a good trip and went down yesterday morning heavily loaded with lumber and grain. She is still doing a good business. Capt. Penno will build a Texas on her cap on the next trip and otherwise improve her. Mr. Mullins, the pilot, says she is the easiest boat handled he ever saw; no difference what kind of water or weather he can make her do almost anything he wants.

E. Power has several hundred tea roses in bloom, including Marshal Neils, and he is prepared to furnish rose buds in any quantity on demand. Persons wishing Marshal Neils buds should have orders in a day or two before they need them as they are scarce at this time of the year.

He has other flowers in proportion, and is prepared to furnish bouquets or designs made up in a very short time after the order is sent in.

Elder P. S. Fall will preach at the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning at eleven o'clock. There will be no services at night.

The colored base ball club of this city defeated the Lawrenceburg club Saturday in a game at that place. The score stands 26 to 9.

A burglar entered the residence of Owen Robinson, on the Owenton 'pike, just beyond the city limits. Thursday night, Mr. Robinson is a night guard at the Penitentiary and, of course, was not at home, but his wife was fully able to take care of herself, as she had a pistol in the house and made good use of it by firing several shots at the thief before he got out of the house.

An express train will be run by the L. & N. Railroad to High Bridge Camp Meeting to-morrow, in order to give all those who desire to hear the celebrated divine, Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, of Brooklyn, New York, who will preach there on that occasion. The train will leave this city at 7:30 o'clock, and the fare for the round trip will be only 25 cents.

Mr. Moses O'Connor, for nearly three years a valued employee of this office, has retired from the business and opened a grocery on Mero street, between Washington and Wapping. Mose is a good business man, a clever fellow, and we wish him all the success in his new business that he deserves—that he may grow so rich as never to be compelled to return to the case for a livelihood.

Mrs. Swigert has had a neat and substantial stone guard wall built between St. Clair street and the roadway to the wharf, just Wapping street to the bridge, and now the city should have the retaining wall on the river bank, from the abutment to Mrs. Swigert's wall repaired or replaced with a new one, and a new brick sidewalk laid from Wapping street to the bridge. In fact the pavements on each side of the street at the north end of the bridge are in a wretched condition, and should be repaired before another winter sets in.

As Mr. H. A. Evans was going to dinner yesterday, in crossing the mouth of the alley which runs from Main to Broadway, between St. Clair and Washington streets, he discovered the roof of the old brick building immediately in the rear of Swigert's block to be on fire and gave the alarm. The Fire Department were soon at work and extinguished the flames before any great damage was done by the fire, but flooded the whole premises with water. Twenty-five or thirty dollars will cover the damage. The fire was caused by a defective fuse.

Franklin county paid tax from 1879 to 1880: Billiard tables, $120; cards, $5.75; no dogs. From 1880 to 1881: Billiards, $100; cards, $5.50; no dogs. For fiscal year ending October 10, 1881, into School Fund: Billiards, $68.60; on dogs, $8.64; no cards. Auditor says: "Much of the revenue is lost through exonerations."

The above shows a gradual falling off of the tax. Can it be possible that the rest of the dogs have been exonerated from their tax?

There is a screw loose somewhere. The School Fund is losing too much tax. Is there no remedy, or is there no one to look after the tax that is due the School Fund? What is the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction intended for, unless it is intended for him to look after the school interest throughout the State, and to see the laws applying to the public schools are rigidly enforced and the money promptly collected and placed to the credit of the School Fund?

No more taxes for schools when the present laws are so badly enforced and taxes not collected and properly credited.

Klass & Co. are going to work remodeling their store about the 15th of August, and in order to clear out their present stock, will offer their entire stock of clothing, dry goods, boots, shoes, etc., at sacrifice prices.
